

61
density of no more than 4.0 and a  $D_{max} - D_{min}$  density change of at least 1.0 is formed in each color record after thermal development at a temperature of 100°C to 160°C.

12
5. The color photothermographic element of claim 4, wherein the grain thickness is greater than 0.08 microns. --